How to build and run project
Follow these steps to build and run project:

1. Open project with Android Studio. In toolbar, Click on bottom that show available device.

2. When you click button on step 1. you will see list of available device. Pick your favorite.
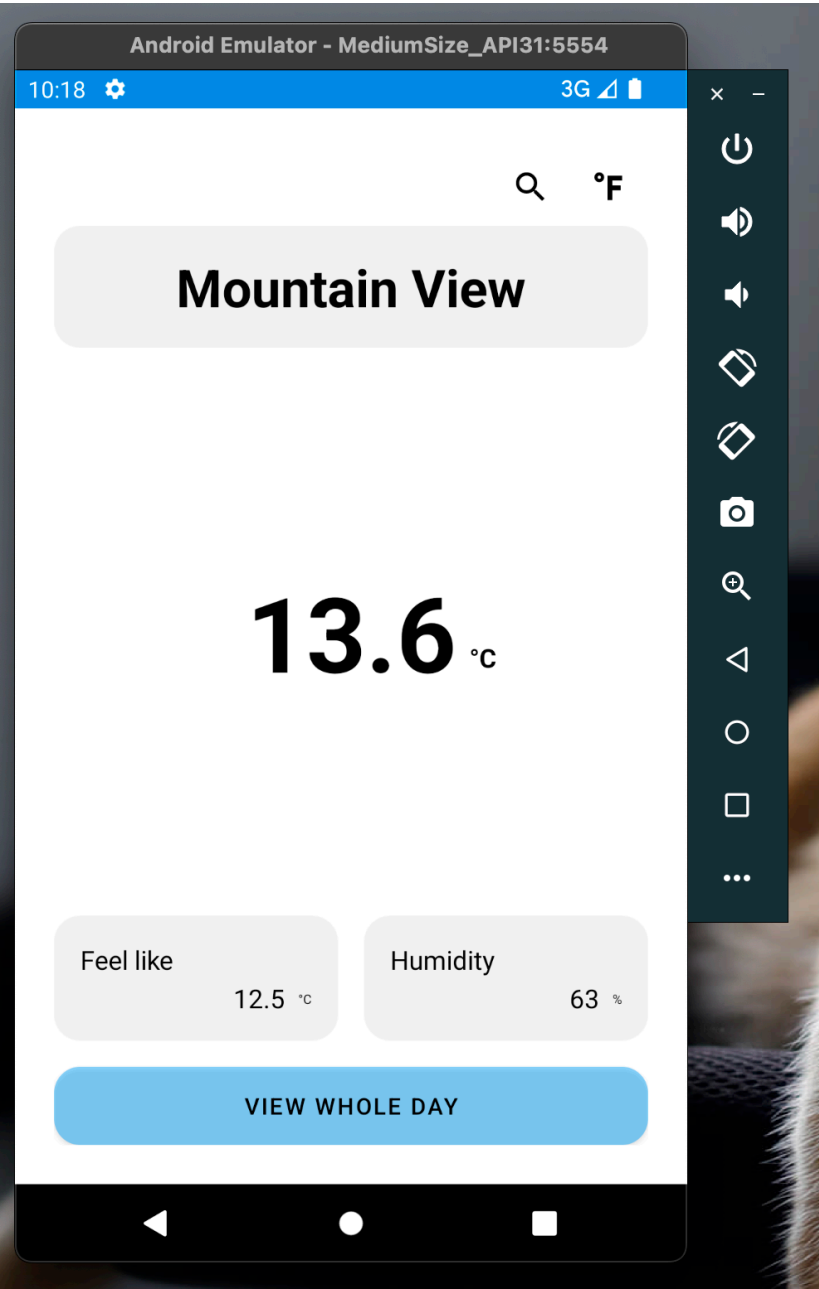

3. When you have selected device to run app on. Click this icon to build and run app.

4. If you are not start emulator yet. Android Studio will start Emulator in automatically and compile before build code to be application.
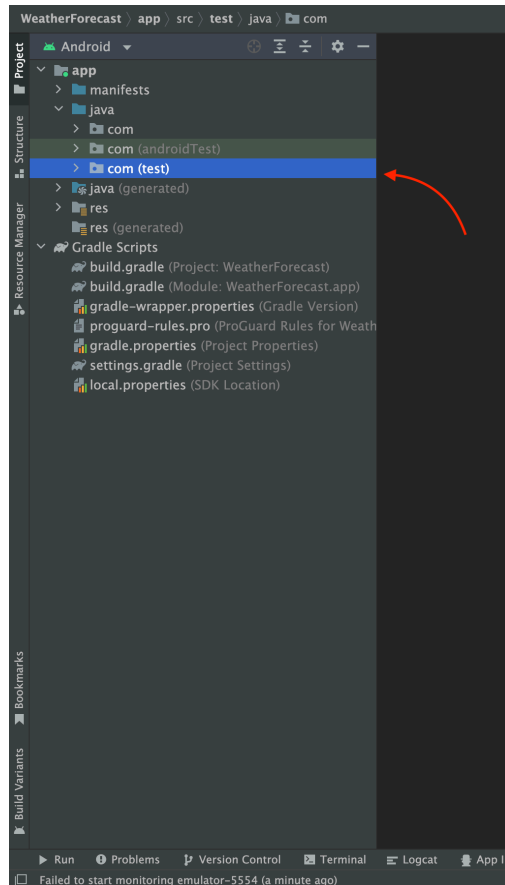

5. Waiting for build then Hooray! Application is ready to test.

How to test project
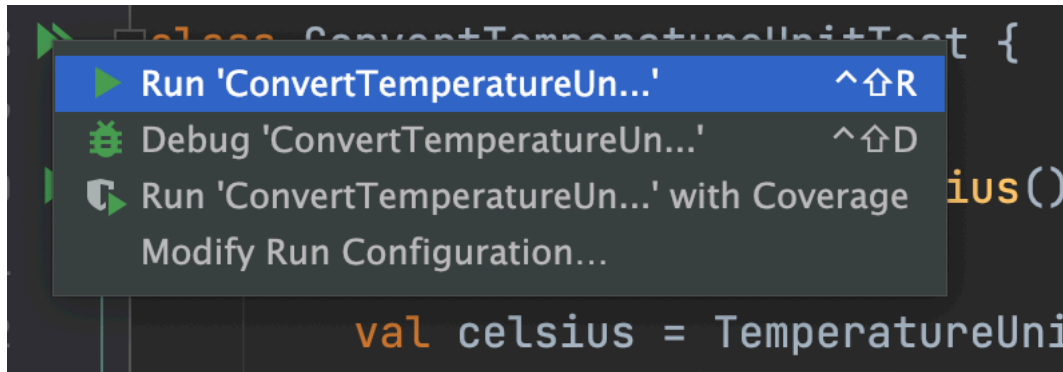

Follow these steps to test function in project:

1. In project file. You will see package folder of testing file.

2. Select testing file in number 1 then click icon in number 2 to test all testing function.
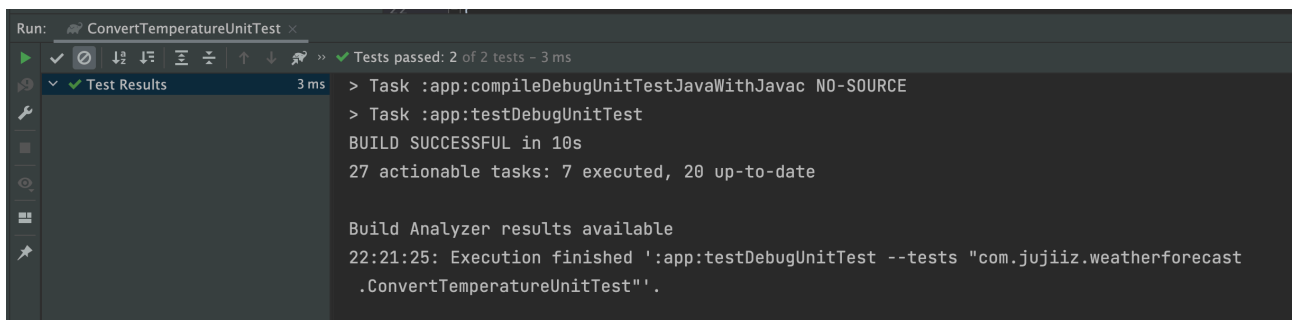

3. Select run testing file.

4. testing is in progress…

5. Wow! Testing has passed.

Recommendation feature

- Percentage of chance that it will rain for each period.
- More weather information.